

Train crash call

---

The solicitor for Morgan Jones, the Christchurch boy who lost his sight and a leg in a train accident last year, is urging people who may have witnessed similar incidents to come forward. Grant Cameron said he had information about other similar incidents in various parts of the country but required further information. Last week the Transport Accident Commission reopened its investigation into the accident as a result of representations by NZ Rail.

---

Section: NEWS

Sub-Section: NATIONAL

Column: BRIEF

Topics: RAIL ACCIDENTS ; RAIL SAFETY